I received an email about a Proposal Revision Request. Now what?

Proposal Revisions in eMaryland Marketplace are the means by which you are able to submit a clarification to your original Quote or provide a Best and Final Offer. A procurement officer must send you a Proposal Revision Request in order for you to be able to revise your original response (Quote).

Next, click the Bids tab on your homepage and view the top section, “Revision Requests.” The original Quote that you submitted will appear listed, allowing you to edit it once selected. Revise the Quote as directed in the email you received from the procurement officer and submit it. This new Quote will replace your original once submitted.
